INSTRUCTIONS ON THE USE OF CERTIFICATION MARKS AND ACCREDITATION SYMBOLS

The 'STANDARDS MALAYSIA' Accreditation Symbol

The 'STANDARDS MALAYSIA' Accreditation Symbol relates to the accreditation of NIOSH Certification to award certificates and must only be used in conjunction with the NIOSH Certification mark (as illustrated) and show the appropriate management system relevant to the client's certificate and NIOSH Certification registration number, printed centrally below the accreditation symbol.

The symbol can be used on:

- Organization's stationery, provided organization's logo or title is also displayed with at least equal prominence;
- Organization's publicity material or other items relevant to the certificates;
- Exhibition stands;
- Internal walls and doors within the certificated organization's building; and
- Business card.

The symbols cannot be used on:

- Products or product packaging seen by the consumer or in any other way that may be interpreted as denoting product conformity;
- Laboratory test, Calibration or inspection reports as such reports are deemed to be products in this context.
- Promotional items (pens, mats, diaries etc);
- Vehicles;
- External walls of buildings; and
- Flags and banners.

The Symbol cannot be used:

- By sites or activities not included in the scope;
- By licensees of a certified company; and
- In any misleading manner.

The accreditation mark should normally have a minimum height (excluding the accreditation number) of 20mm and on A4 stationery should not be larger than 30mm high. On larger items of unfolded stationery the size may be proportionally increased. Where space restrictions apply, the mark may be reduced in size but must always be easily legible with no infilling.

The marks shall normally be printed in single color, which should be the predominant ink color of the document or, in the case of pre-printed letterheads, the predominant ink color of the letterheads.

INSTRUCTIONS ON THE USE OF CERTIFICATION MARKS AND ACCREDITATION SYMBOLS

Multicolor printing of the accreditation mark must follow the STANDARDS MALAYSIA guidelines, which can be provided on request. Soft copy of the above marks and logos are available from NIOSH Certification.

Electronic reproductions of the mark from masters are permitted, provided that the above requirements are met. Redrawn approximations of the marks are not allowed.

INSTRUCTIONS ON THE USE OF CERTIFICATION MARKS AND ACCREDITATION SYMBOLS

Claims and Declarations

All references to any NIOSH Certification accredited scheme should be phrased; “NIOSH Certification Sdn. Bhd. is “STANDARDS MALAYSIA” accredited certification body number (refer Figure).

The organizations should not make claims or declaration that are not true or give the impression that the organization, parts of the organization or its subsidiaries, sites and associates are certificated for activities or services when they are not.

The marks, symbols, claims, or declaration should not be used in a way as to imply that NIOSH Certification or “STANDARDS MALAYSIA” accepts responsibilities for activities carried out under the scope of the certification.

Misuse of Logo or Marks

Flagrant and/or persistent misuse of the marks or Symbols can be considered grounds for suspension and/or withdrawal of certification.

Certified organization shall immediately cease to issue any materials or documentation containing the marks or symbols following withdrawal, suspension or termination of certification.

If a company decides to resign its certificates it must immediately cease issue of any materials that suggest it is still certificated and return the certificate to the local office.

Advice

Any advertising or press release relating to a company’s registration must state that the company is registered by NIOSH Certification Sdn. Bhd.

Advice on the use of the Symbols/marks can be obtained for the local NIOSH Certification office.

Note :

The alpha-numeric identification Alphabet-XXX/XX in the Cert No. (e.g. CERT. NO. O: XXX/XX) refers to the certification number of the certificate.
