

GIFT POLICY

Policy Statement

We have zero tolerance policy on any breaches to the national regulatory obligations and laws as well as against all forms of bribery and corruption. We firmly support the national anti-bribery and anti-corruption effort by establishing and upholding good corporate governance and continuously conduct our business day-to-day operations in an honest, ethical and professional manner. All related parties involved in our business must uphold the highest standard of integrity and accountability to ensure the full compliance of this policy.

We committed to The National Anti-Corruption Plan (NACP) in promoting transparency, accountability and integrity culture in every Malaysians through our conformity assessment and training services for ISO 37001:2016 Anti-Bribery Management Systems.